But he warned the congregation that the dedicatory service was only a beginning.

"Both Alhabah," said he, "has but placed its foot on the threshold of a larger life of usefulness and of power.

I received telegrams and letters of congratuations from friends throughout the country. It was an auspicious and a beautiful entrance into our new home of prayer. Let me, however, call your attention again for a moment to the real thought of that dedicatory service. The dedication of a house of worship is no more the true consecration of it than is the wedding often used by the prophets and Biblical writers. The prophet Hosen (il:21-22) gives the most distinct expression to it, God. The revelation at Sinal was is weeding day—the mountain it-was the altar. mineteen counties in the State will be unable to claim their portion of the annual State appropriation.

The condition of affairs grows out of the fact that, according to the statutes, it is the supervisors of each county are required to lovy a tax of not less than seven and one-half cents and not more than twenty cents on real and personal property for the county schools, and the same levy for the district schools, making the combined school tax not less than fifteen cents on the hundred dollars or more than 40 cents. When the levy has been made, it is the duty of the county and district superintendents to make their report to the State Board of Education; and should the required tax not be levied or fall below the minimum, the said county will not receive its annual appropriation from the State for the maintenance of its schools.

The State Board of Education adjourned yesterday afternoon after a session lasting two days and during that time an unusually large amount of routine business was transacted.

The board adopted a list of books for use in the public high schools of the State, to be used for the next four years.

All of the books on the old list that wer acceptable were retained and there is radical change in the new list. A list of supplementary books for use in the primary and grammar schools was submit-ted by Secretary E. C. Glass, chairman of the committee. This was approved, but action was deferred until another meeting.

A committee of three was appointed to consider the advisability of appointing a State board of examiners whose duty it shall be to examine persons desiring to teach in the public schools.

it shall be to examine a wase case it is shall be to examine a wase to teach in the public schools.

Dr. C. W. Kent, of the Committee on High Schools, submitted a report on the minimum requirements of a high school and this was adopted. The board also considered the appointment of one or more high school inspectors, whose duty it shall be to visit the high schools throughout the State and to inquire into the methods used, as well as to see whether or not the schools meet with the requirements of the board.

The secretary was instructed to address a letter to Mr. John T. West, of Norfolk county, who was unable to attend the board meeting, and to express their sympathy for him, and wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. West has been a member for several years, and this is the first meeting that he has not attended.

The board approved the second distributed to districts was $193,567,33. The second State funds made to the schools this year; and it was reported that the amount of the literary fund distributed to districts was $193,567,33. The second State distribution or grand staff fund amounts to $806,153.08. This has not been distributed. The total amount is $1,062,720.98 for the year $19,7-1905, an increase of $37,000 over that distributed last year.
